About the Attorney

Barbara practices in the areas of health care and administrative law, with emphasis in regulatory matters and fraud and abuse. She represents acute and post acute providers such as long term care facilities, home health, hospice and assisted living facilities, and individual providers before licensing boards.

In 2010, Barbara was elected to the American Health Lawyers Association's Board of Directors after completing her third year as the Chair of AHLA's Long Term Care, Senior Housing, In-Home Care and Rehabilitation Practice Group.

Prior to joining the firm, Barbara clerked for the Honorable William H. Billings, Supreme Court of Missouri. Barbara also has over twelve years experience as a registered nurse. She is a frequent presenter nationally and regionally on issues related to health care.
