Arbitration Training

July 1, 2010

Sheraton Seattle Hotel
Seattle, WA

Do you wish to become an Arbitrator, represent a client in an arbitration or perhaps wish to take a refresher course on arbitration techniques? Then you will want to attend the AHLA ADR Service's one-day course on Arbitration.

No other training provides the type of unique skills-development workshop designed to develop, strengthen and enhance your knowledge, skills and expertise as an alternative dispute resolver.

Training will be conducted by Jerry P. Roscoe and will be worth approximately 6.5 credits for 60-minute states and approximately 7.8 credits for 50-minute states.

Specific training goals include:

- The process of an arbitration from case intake to award
- Current applicable arbitration law
- The legal and ethical issues in arbitration
- The challenges that AHLA arbitrators typically confront, including due process protocols, economic and billing issues, establishing terms of reference, and navigating challenges to the arbitral award

For detailed information and to register, go online to www.healthlawyers.org/programs. You can also register by phone, fax or mail. No onsite registrations will be accepted. Registration is limited to 50 attendees on a first-come, first-served basis.

To register: Call (202) 833-1100, prompt #2. Please have your credit card number available. Complete and fax to (202) 775-2482. Remit payment and registration form by mail to AHLA, PO Box 79340, Baltimore, MD 21279-0340.
