As co-chairs of the Diversity+Inclusion Council, we invite and welcome you to the AHLA Celebrating Diversity+Inclusion networking reception!

The Association is deeply committed to being a welcoming, diverse, and inclusive community of those interested in health law. The receptions at our in-person programs provide a direct and personal opportunity to engage with members and friends like you. Visit www.healthlawyers.org/events for the most up-to-date information about upcoming in-person programs.

Diversity and inclusion are valued at AHLA, and we need your participation to ensure that AHLA remains the essential health law resource in the future of the health law profession.

Should you have any questions or if you wish to share any feedback, contact us, or AHLA Vice President of Membership and Public Interest Kerry Hoggard, khoggard@healthlawyers.org, (202) 833-0760.

Volunteer & Make Your Voice Heard

Getting involved in AHLA is easy. We have numerous opportunities for volunteer engagement; some take a few hours a month, others require a longer time commitment, but can produce big results for your career and for the health law community. To learn more, visit www.healthlawyers.org/volunteer.

Many of AHLA's leaders and longtime members are serve as mentors for those new to health law, or those looking to learn from more experienced members. Find a mentor at www.healthlawyers.org/mentoring.

Advance AHLA's Public Interest Mission

AHLA provides health care lawyers and their clients, health professionals, and their communities with valuable resources. Find the tools you need to make an impact or to make a donation to AHLA Public Interest by visiting www.healthlawyers.org/publicinterest.

Celebrate Diversity+Inclusion

AHLA’s diversity and inclusion focus continues to be an important aspect of its strategic plan and builds on initiatives implemented over the last several years. Thank you for sharing our commitment to diversity and inclusion.

---

Who We Are

The American Health Lawyers Association (AHLA) is the nation's largest, nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) educational organization devoted to legal issues in the health care field. Our attorney and in-house counsel members represent the best in their profession. AHLA also welcomes and benefits from the membership of compliance and privacy officers, finance officers, health care consultants, regulatory professionals, physicians, nurses, CEOs, public health officials, and others interested in health care legal and regulatory issues.

Diversity Statement

In principle and in practice, the American Health Lawyers Association values and seeks to advance and promote diverse and inclusive participation within the Association regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, or disability. Guided by these values, the Association strongly encourages and embraces participation of diverse individuals as it leads health law to excellence through education, information, and dialogue.