PEER REVIEW AND CREDENTIALING IN AN ERA OF RISK MANAGEMENT

By

MARK A. KADZIELSKI, ESQ. mkadzielski@fulbright.com
(213) 892-9306

I. Practitioner Credentialing
   a. Membership and Clinical Privileges
   b. The Joint Commission (“TJC”) Requirements
   c. Medicare Conditions of Participation

II. Healthcare Quality Improvement Act of 1986 (“HCQIA”)
   a. Background of the Act
   b. New Immunities for Peer Review
   c. New Reporting Requirements: The National Practitioner Data Bank (“NPDB”)

III. Advanced Issues in Credentialing
   a. The Americans With Disabilities Act (“ADA”)
   b. The Rehabilitation Act
   c. Other Accreditation Standards
   d. Internet Credentialing

IV. Potential Liabilities Related to Credentialing
   a. Negligent Credentialing
   b. Negligent Referrals
   c. Failure to Comply with Organizational Documents

V. Conclusion: Managing Risks for the Enterprise